

Wal-Mart Supercenter Donates to the Friends of the Floral City Public Library

The Wal-Mart Supercenter in Inverness has donated to the Friends of the Floral City Public Library a community grant to cover the purchase of two flat screen television monitors. This is a greatly needed multi-media technology in this new modern library facility. These monitors will allow the library to show programming information, important news and weather, and other community related programs of interest to our patrons.

From left to right in photo: Lynn Bassett, President, Friends of the Floral City Library; H. D. Bassett, Treasurer, Friends of the Floral City Library; Eric C. Head, Asst. Director, Citrus County Library System; Larry Gamble, Store Manager, Wal-Mart Supercenter; Gloria Quereux, Community Relations, Wal-Mart Supercenter.